

Time / period	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
10:30 to 11:30	10:00AM Early Period Seam Treatments. Princess Aibhlin of Northshield will be teaching a hands-on and demonstration class, no lecture. I will provide handout and materials. Suggested 3$ donation to cover costs.	Intro to Nallbinding: Mistress Marina Learn Basic concepts of Viking looping with wool	Fire: how to make it happen Master Nikolas will be teaching how to create a fire using flint and steel. This class is open to all; including children accompanied by a parent.	No Class	Magyar Discussion Group: Master Nikolas will share Research on the Magyar peoples that have been translated into English.
11:30 to 12:30	Tools: Sir Jon The Tall learn about tools used during the Viking Age	Drop Spinning : Evalaliia learn how to use a drop spindle to make thread.	11:30-12:30 Viking Dyes Jac Hatun learn about dyestuffs that were used during the Viking Age No fee.	No Class
12:30 to 1:30	Head Coverings: Countess Joan Learn about Period Viking and Eastern European head coverings used by women.	Evalaliia/Emma clean up prep for next class	12:30-2:30 Skjoldenhamn Hood: Olrun Bring 2 yards of washed fabric. You will learn about the original find, as well as how to measure and make your own.	Intermediate Naalbinding: Mistress Marina Lear Naalbinding stitches and variations, as well as Project designs
1:30 to 2:30	Intro to Nallbinding: Mistress Marina Learn Basic concepts of Viking looping with wool	Warp Loom : Countess Emma learn how to use a warp weighted loom to weave fabric.		Tools: Sir Jon The Tall learn about tools used during the Viking Age
2:30 to 3:30	3:00 Women's Jewelry Attachments in the Viking Age. Maggie. Lecture and hand out on types of chain and other practical jewelry items in the Viking Age. Practical hands on lesson on making decorative wire rings to attach chain dividers to brooches, hang bead strands from brooches, and attach items to chatelains, as well as make simple temple rings. Each student will receive a handout, one foot of double link round brass chain, and 2 pre-tapered and cut brass wires and will learn how to anneal and bend a Viking ring adornment. Other finished findings like extra chain and silver s-hooks and jump rings will be available for purchase. Materials cost $30	3:00 Page School visits Feed the Ravens for a fun Archeology dig!		Fire: how to make it happen Master Nikolas will be teaching how to create a fire using flint and steel. This class is open to all; including children accompanied by a parent.
3:30 to 4:30	Maggie (cont)	Page School visits Feed the Ravens for a fun Archeology dig!	Viking Games	Magyar Discussion Group: Master Nikolas will share Research on the Magyar peoples that have been translated into English.
4:30 to 5:30			Viking Games
5:30 to 6:30			Viking Games
6:30 to 7:30			Midnight Madness
7:30 to 8:30			Midnight Madness
8:30 to 9:30			Midnight Madness
9:30 to 10:30			Midnight Madness
10:30 to 11:30			Midnight Madness		